DESIGNER CHARLOTTE DUNAGAN LEANS INTO THE MIDCENTURY-MODERN CHARM OF THE VIESTE CHAIR

TEXT CHRISTOPHER DAY

THE TASTEMAKER: Together with Thomas Diverio, Charlotte Dunagan is the head of Miami's Dunagan Diverio Design Group, a studio with a portfolio of projects that includes some of most exclusive residences in South Florida.

THE OBJECT: With a silhouette that references both retro and modern influences, the Vieste chair by Massimo Castagna for Exteta offers smooth curves and sculpted volumes that make it as comfortable as it is aesthetically pleasing.

IN HER WORDS: "The Vieste is an iconic seat that brings a vintage feel reinterpreted by following modern ideas," says Dunagan. "The chair's different materials connect contrasts in the most harmonic way." exteta.it; dunagandiverio.com
