Kips Bay Kick-Off

THE PARTY Sarah and Andrew Wetenhall hosted a dinner to celebrate the 7th annual Kips Bay Decorator Show House Palm Beach at The Colony Hotel. THE PEOPLE This year's Show House designers, sponsors, committee members and other supporters gathered in the East Garden for cocktails and dinner. Guests included Martha Stewart, Meg and Doug Braff, Nick and Molly Mele, Bettina Anderson, Jonathan Savage, Billy Ceglia, James and Laura Freeman and Thomas and Carol Kirchoff. THE PINNACLE The Show House supports the Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club and Boys & Girls Clubs of Palm Beach County. The Clubs offer innovative after-school and enrichment programs for more than 21,000 youth, ages six through 18 in ten locations throughout the Bronx and 20 across Palm Beach County.

ATTENTION

The Kips Bay Decorator Show House Palm Beach returns to South Florida with a heavy dose of sophistication, craftsmanship, wonder and whimsy.

TO DETAIL

McCann Design Group created a tropical chic lounge inspired by Paris in the 1930s. Karen Knorr's flamingo photograph, "The Battle Gallery, Château Chantilly," adds whimsy to the room, textured with wallcovering by Lisa Kanning from Hartmann & Forbes and fabrics by Cowtan & Tout, Pierre Frey, Samuel & Sons and Romo.

HER BATHROOM & HER DRESSING ROOM

Hand-beaded jellyfish dance across a powder room wall. Rice paper appliques curve around corners. A photograph depicting two flamingos inside a French chateau perches above a fireplace in what feels like a 1930s Parisian lounge. And in the James Bond-inspired dressing room, canvases were suspended from the ceiling and laid flat to form a canopy over the handsome interior. They're the kind of imaginative installations we've come to know and love from the Kips Bay Decorator Show House Palm Beach (kipsbaydecoratorshowhouse.org) and, as always, offered a refreshing twist. So, while the residence nestles into the SoSo neighborhood of West Palm Beach, it could have been anywhere in the world—an enchanting forest, a Turkish tent, a cacti garden nodding to the contemporary forms of Mexican architect Luis Barragán. Sinuous shapes, sumptuous fabrics and a sophisticated color palette take the beloved Palm Beach aesthetic and turn it on its head. Even the home's architecture, modern and geometric, gave it a fresh perspective. Benefiting Kips Bay Boys & Girls Club and Boys & Girls Clubs of Palm Beach County, this year's showhouse radiated creativity, from the Murano glass interpretation of a Sputnik chandelier to the bedroom sanctuary awash in seashells and carved rock crystals. Take a peek inside and let your imagination wander to equally inspired places.

“We envisioned a room that was perhaps lost to time behind a hidden grotto. Mysteriously found, it feels like stepping inside your own shell and finding the pearl.”
